Miami County Indiana Worth Remembering

Remembering Our Past To Preserve Our Future

Our Women's Suffrage Centennial celebration mission is:

- to inspire Miami County adults and youth to think, read, and talk about the historical significance of Woman's suffrage
- to study and celebrate the women in Miami County who played a role in the Suffrage Movement in Indiana and nationally.
- to provide material such as books, films, entertainment and creative activities to engage the people of Miami County in the learning experience of the Suffrage Movement.
- to encourage others to delve into the suffrage stories in their families and capture it for future generations.
- to encourage everyone to vote and engage fully in the democratic process.

Moving on from our successful celebration of the Centennial of WWI last Veteran's Day, our group is now focusing on another Miami County event worth remembering: the centennial of the 19th Amendment.

In 1848 the movement for women's rights was born at the Seneca Falls Convention organized by Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott. From their work was born the Susan B Anthony Amendment, which was finally ratified in August 1920, theretofore recognizing American women as full citizens of this country, with the right to vote.

To commemorate the centennial of its ratification we are planning a series of activities to help all participants gain a greater appreciation for their voting right. All these activities will lead to the re-enactment of a Woman's Parade to be held in Peru in August 2020.

We intend to build momentum with each project as we gain knowledge and increase awareness in the community thru participation in these activities. We are planning to make t-shirts to be worn during the parade, designed with a mock sash where to pin the buttons we are creating for the occasion.

We have started book study groups at all three Miami County High Schools and with the community. We plan to place micro-displays in each of the schools, as well as other public locations, that will be thought provoking and increase interest in the subject.

On a community level we look forward to participating in Second Saturday activities at different businesses, and introduce a different button every month. We plan to bring "The Suffragette" movie to our community. Next Spring, professional storyteller Sally Perkins will present "Digging in Their Heels", and Pat Piper will surprise us with Suffragette Mystery Dinner with a local flair. More things are in the planning: reader theater, Equal-i-teas, speakers.... We also hope to have a dress rehearsal for the parade by joining in the July 2020 Circus Festival Parade, with the Suffragettes Circus.

The Suffrage Movement is providing a unique opportunity for the whole community to rally together the way it did so well 100 years ago. So far, the funding has come from our own pockets, but we realize that with a project of this size we can't do it alone.

We are looking for partners and sponsors to host events/activities and help with volunteers to ensure a smooth and memorable experience. Will you join with us in celebrating Woman's Suffrage?
